Finance and Markets

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]

NEW YORK, March 15.—Apart from a few highly speculative shares which were susceptible to further pressure, today's stock market manifested a disposition to stabilize after the extreme depression of the last fortnight.

Shorts, it was observed, exercised greater caution, running to cover at the first signs of organized support in the more stable issues. This was especially the case in the active final hour when many losses were cancelled and a number of gains made.

Obstacles to general improvement were presented by Atlantic Gulf, General Asphalt, United Fruit, Crucible Steel and several oil shares, these showing extreme recessions of 2 to 5 points.

The rebound in the later dealings was led by United States Steel, Southern Pacific, and some other issues of intrinsic worth. Affiliated stocks quickly reversed, together with a number of specialties. Sales 600,000 shares.

Finance factors were not materially altered, but encouragement was expressed at the absence of a money flurry.

Rates on London and Paris were moderately firm, with reactions of varying degree on Belgium, Italy and the so-called neutral countries, especially Sweden, which was particularly altered, but encouragement was expressed at the absence of a money flurry.

Liberty issues featured a better and broader bond market, rails and utilities also making noteworthy recoveries, but the foreign exchange market was but the foreign exchange market reacting.

Total sales, par value, $3,750,000.

WOODMEN OF WORLD STATE CONVENTION OPENS IN MESA TODAY

MESA, March 15.—A four-day program of lodge sessions and entertainment will open at the Mesquite Hotel this morning when delegates representing every Woodmen of the World lodge in the states of New Mexico and Arizona gather here for their bi-annual convention. Twenty-four delegates from more distant points arrived in Mesa Monday night, others put in an appearance Tuesday and it is expected that many as 30 delegates will be here by the time the opening session is called at 8:30 Wednesday morning in the Knights of Pythias hall.

Convention headquarters have been established in the new Mesquite hotel, and the entire accommodations of the hotel have been turned over to the use of the visiting delegates. The overflow of visitors will be cared for at the Rex and other hotels in the city.

The first day of the convention will be given over principally to organization. At the initial session, which opens at 9:30 Wednesday, an address of welcome to the visitors will be given by Governor Campbell or another notable state or city official, and following evening roll call of officers, reading of the unapproved minutes and other items will be cared for. The full three-day program will include appointment of committees, reports of officers, motions, resolutions and recommendations, reports of various committees, selection of next place of meeting; election of officers of head camp and delegates to executive camp; convention on the installation of officers' appointment of standing committees.

The visiting delegates were treated to the first entertainment Tuesday afternoon with an automobile ride over the Mesa section. Other auto rides will be given each afternoon following the close of the lodge session. Thursday evening the visiting delegates will be entertained at dinner and with a program in the K. of P. hall, to be preceded by competitive drills between the Phoenix and Glendale teams.

Friday evening the Phoenix lodge will be hosts to the delegates with an entertainment to be on in that city. Arrangements are also being made for a motorcade to the Roosevelt dam on Saturday, all visiting delegates being invited to join in the run, for which the necessary number of cars will be furnished. The Mesa Commercial club has donated $150 toward the expense of the trip and other contributions are coming which practically assure the motorcade being made.

Visiting delegates who had arrived up to Tuesday and had registered at convention headquarters included: J. H. Jackson, W. C. Cunningham and John Richards, Artesian, N. M.; W. M. Bloxon, R. H. King and J. B. Leck of Carlsbad, N. M.; S. B. Oliver, Logan, N. M.; Robert W. Miller, Hagerman, N. M.; H. M. Chilcoat, Carlsbad, N. M.; W. J. Collins, Clifton, Ariz.; J. F. Combs, Mount Dora, N. M.; M. B. Pitts, Dr. M. A. Grissom, Charles Andrews and C. S. Bell of Roswell, N. M.; E. Sawyer, E. L. Alvarado and Arthur T. Smith of Albuquerque, N. M.; A. E. Everett of Corona, N. M.; A. A. Abeyta, Tucuman, N. M.; W. J. Matthews, Texico, N. M.; and M. G. Villagran of El Paso.

Thieves Enter Produce Store

Forcing an entrance through the roof, thieves some time Monday night or Tuesday morning entered the Johnson-Pearce Produce company store and the store of the Mesa Seed and Feed company on West Main street and ransacked the offices of both stores and made away with a few sundry items. The offices were turned "upside down," books and supplies of all sorts being removed and scattered about with the evident purpose in view of finding something of value. Several dollars' worth of stamps and a dollar or so in silver was removed from the Johnson-Pearce office, but nothing of value has been missed from the seed store. Knobs on the safes in both offices were removed and left on the floor, but no evidence was left that a further effort was made to open the safes. Exit was gained by opening a rear door of the produce house.

Boston Store to Reopen

Announcement has been made by S. Marcus, proprietor of the Boston store, which was partly destroyed by fire about a month ago, that the house will reopen again within another month or six weeks with an entirely new stock of goods. Insurance adjusters have completed their work on the destroyed stock of merchandise and the stock as a whole has been disposed of to a Los Angeles firm and will be removed there for sale. Mr. Marcus is now sending his efforts toward the reconstruction of the building which was destroyed and as quickly as it is completed a new stock of goods will be installed and the store reopened.

Will Mine in Old Mexico

J. T. McFarland expects to leave Mesa Wednesday morning for New York from which point he will go by machine into Old Mexico, where he will be associated with a mining company.

M. E. Aid Will Meet

The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist Episcopal church will have a "St. Patrick's Day" social at the home of Mrs. Hendricks on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. A program appropriate to the day has been prepared. Mrs. Thompson of the Crittenton home of Phoenix will speak briefly on the work of that organization. All ladies of the church and friends are cordially invited by the president to attend the social. A silver offering will be taken.
